A request someone can act on

Read the brief

Your school exhibition is on Friday from 2 to 5 p.m. The neighbourhood centre can lend tables if it receives a written request at least two days earlier. You need six tables and can collect them at noon.

Draft

Write a subject line, a greeting, a clear request and a practical collection and return plan. Close by asking the centre to confirm availability.

Peer review

Swap drafts. Could the recipient identify the number of tables, decide whether the timing works and reply without asking for an essential detail? Give one specific suggestion.
